PROTECT YOUR MONEY FROM EMBEZZLEMENT OF YOUR EMPLOYEE

In the business environment, criminals may use forgery, larceny or fraudulent conversion to steal large amounts of money in crafty and hard-to-detect ways - and often by the time you realise what is happening, it is too late.

To protect against these scenarios, we offer fidelity insurance, a policy that safeguards you and your assets. And while you may trust your employees, it pays to be careful - our policy also protects you from theft or loss by your staff or assistant.

FEATURES:

Our policy covers you against loss from forgery and embezzlement, as well as larceny or fraudulent conversion.

The compensation is payable up to the total amount of money stolen by an employee of the company or the total amount of loss incurred by the insured. We offer quick consultation, 24/7 claim service and transparent, easy to understand terms and conditions.

CORE BENEFITS

Our policy covers you against any direct pecuniary loss sustained through forgery and embezzlement.

Covers cash lost by dishonest behaviour or attempts to steal by employees and assistants.
